Bio

Katie Lindquist has played all but six tournaments in her career with her younger sister Tracy. They rank second in career AVP tournaments as a team. In 2005, Lindquist was 10th in digs (553).

Lindquist has ranked as a top-32 player in each of her six seasons on the AVP Tour. She ended the 2006 season fifth in aces (.81 per game). In July 2006 the Lindquist sisters played in an FIVB Challenger event in Cyprus, placing third after going through the qualifier. Katie played at University of San Diego, where she was a three-time first-team all-conference player. In 1998 and 1999, was a first-team all-district setter.

Tracy Lindquist has played all of her AVP tournaments in her career with her older sister Katie. They rank second in career AVP tournaments as a team. In 2005, Lindquist was ninth in hitting percentage (.416) on the Tour. The 2006 season marked her fourth straight season finishing the year ranked as a top-32 player. In July 2006 the Lindquist sisters played in an FIVB Challenger event in Cyprus, placing third after going through the qualifier. For the third straight year, she is playing in the offseason on the pro beach tour in New Zealand. Before the 2005 season she played there with Claire Robertson, while competing with Courtney Niles before the 2006 season.

A setter at USC, she led the Trojans to the NCAA Title in 2003. Tracy won the gold medal at the first-ever World University Beach Volleyball Championships held in Guadalupe of the French Antilles.
